Dear participants,

We would like to emphasise that the city rally is NOT a school event.

Participation in the rally and in the activities to be carried out is voluntary.

The participating clubs and associations, the schools, businesses and the town of Waltrop are not liable for accidents, property damage or personal injury that occur during or around participation in the town rally. The duty of supervision and care is suspended during the event and all associated activities at the discretion of the persons with parental authority.

Important - Note on the announcement of the winners

As part of our current competition, we would like to point out that the names of the winners drawn will be announced publicly. This means that the names of the winners may be mentioned both in the press and on our social media platforms.

By taking part in our competition, you automatically agree to the possibility of your name being mentioned publicly if you win. If you have any concerns or do not wish your name to be published for personal reasons, please let us know immediately.

We would like to emphasise that the publication of the winners is purely for information purposes and that no commercial intentions are being pursued.

Thank you for your understanding and your participation.

We would like to thank everyone who supported us in this Stadt - Suchspiel
